

Betsy McCall at the pet show

On Saturday, we had the most fun! A pet show, with canaries, fishes, dogs, cats, and even a goose. My cousin Sandy brought his rabbit, Twitchy, in a cage. Ned and Fred, who are twins, brought their sheep dog, Tangles. My little cousin Linda showed her big turtle. She just couldn't make him march the way she wanted. My dog, Nosy, wouldn't stay in line, either, but kept chasing the goose. You never did hear such barking and honking! EVERY pet got first prize—the fish for the best swimmers, Tangles for the longest hair, the birds for the best voices, and so on. Nosy got the prize for the waggiest tail! The admission was a nickel for UNICEF. And do you know what? We collected nearly four dollars, which will buy lots of milk and medicine and things for children in foreign lands.

Her snow pants and Orlon-pile-lined jacket are cozy as can be

This is Betsy McCall

Her plaid kilt and crew-neck sweater are nice for school

Her skirt and bulky cardigan are warm. And washable, too!
