

Betsy McCall's Dog, Nosey, Becomes a Father

You've never seen such adorable puppies, and such long, waggy tails, and such a proud Nosey! Here's how it all happened: This new family, the Bascoms, moved into the big white house down our street. They have a little girl my age, Susan Katrina—Sukey, for short. We liked each other right away, and now we're BEST FRIENDS. Well, Sukey has this white dog called Mixie, because she is a mixture of all kinds of breeds. She's such a sweet, friendly dog, and she and Nosey became friends, too. The four of us went everywhere together. When the puppies were born, Sukey called me. I ran right over, with Nosey at my heels. Such teeny, tiny things! They all squirmed and nestled close to Mixie in the big basket Mrs. Bascom got for them. Nosey was a little scared of them! But in a while, he wagged his tail like mad and gave funny little barks. "He's saying he wants some attention, too," Mrs. Bascom said. So we patted him and made a great fuss about him and told him he'd be a wonderful daddy! And I'll bet he will be, too!

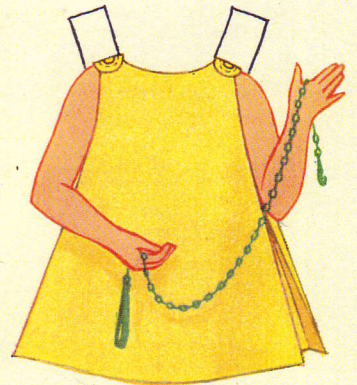

COPYRIGHT © 1963 BY MCCALL CORPORATION

This is Betsy McCall in a swimsuit her mother made from McCall's 6833

Betsy's buttoned pleated dress is McCall's 6871

And Sukey's shift comes from the same pattern